

Constitution of Tai Chi Association, Yukon

The primary purposes of the society are:

- a) to promote the learning and practice of tai chi chuan as a recreational endeavour and as a means of improving the all-round health and well-being of its practitioners;
- b) to enhance the members' knowledge and performance of tai chi chuan by conducting classes and workshops, sponsoring instructional sessions, bringing expert instructors to the Yukon, and promoting such other activities as the members may authorize to further these aims and objectives;
- c) to provide to members suitable practice facilities for meetings, classes, workshops and lectures as the association's resources may permit from time to time;
- d) to associate and participate with other groups and organizations having aims and objectives similar to those of the association with a view to furthering the association's aims, objectives and activities.
